MESSAGE FROM THE CONVENER OF THE COMMITTEE

Dear Parents/Students

It gives me great pleasure to extend my warm greetings and best wishes to all involved in this important endeavour. In the spirit of our University's enduring legacy, inspired by Bharat Ratna Dr. B.R. Ambedkar, we continue our 28 years purposeful journey, striving for excellence in all facets of legal education, research, and professional development.

Our unwavering commitment lies in fostering a harmonious partnership within our academic community, upholding administrative and student fraternity, and consistently meeting national standards of academic rigour and distinction. With our comprehensive array of programmes viz. Under graduate Honours Degree Courses, Post graduate Courses, Doctoral Research Programmes and Post-Doctoral Research Programmes along with the Under graduate Degree Courses in the Affiliated Law Colleges, the University aims to equip our students with robust legal knowledge, leadership qualities, abilities, and ethical values, enabling them to excel in diverse professional walks of life.

Our University actively promotes holistic development through a rich array of academic and extracurricular engagements, including moot court activities, legal aid clinics, NCC, NSS and participation in prestigious national and international competitions. We take immense pride in our students' achievements and are dedicated to providing quality legal education that prepares them for success.

Furthermore, our collaborations through Memorandums of Understanding with various national and international legal institutions and centre's underscore our commitment to fostering academic exchange, recognition, and the expansion of our expertise.

Our University, with its team of well-qualified and committed teaching staff, constantly endeavours to train our students with values, scholarship, and expertise-based legal education. Our ultimate goal remains to enable our graduates to serve the needs and expectations of humanity, championing law, justice, remedies, and social awakening.

With heartfelt wishes for your success.

Hon'ble Thiru. Justice V. Bharathidasan
Convener of the Committee

ABOUT CHENNAI

Chennai is the capital of the Indian State of Tamil Nadu. Located on the Coromandel Coast of the Bay of Bengal, it is one of the culturally economic and educational Centre in South India. According to the 2011 Indian census, it is the sixth-largest city and fourth-most prominent urban agglomeration in India. The city together with the adjoining regions, constitute the Chennai Metropolitan Area, which is the 36th largest urban area by population in the world. Chennai is among the most visited Indian cities by foreign tourists. It was ranked the 43rd most visited city in the world for the year 2015. The Quality of Living Survey rated Chennai as the safest city in India. Chennai attracts 45 percent of health tourists visiting India and 30 to 40 percent of domestic health tourists. As such, it is termed "India's health capital". As a growing metropolitan city in a developing country, Chennai confronts substantial pollution and other logistical and socio-economic problems. Chennai had the third-largest expatriate population in India at 35,000 in 2009; 82,790 in 2011 and estimated at over 1,00,000 by 2016. Tourism guide publisher - Lonely Planet named Chennai as one of the top ten cities in the world to visit in 2015. Chennai is ranked as a beta-level city in the Global Cities Index and was ranked the best city in India by India Today in the 2014 Annual Indian City survey. In 2015, Chennai was named the "hottest" city (worth visiting and worth living in for long term) by the BBC, citing the mixture of both modern and traditional values. National Geographic ranked Chennai's food as second best in the world; it was the only Indian city to feature in the list. Chennai was also named the ninth-best cosmopolitan city in the world by Lonely Planet. In October 2017, Chennai was added to the UNESCO Creative Cities Network (UCCN) list for its rich musical tradition.

The Chennai Metropolitan Area is one of the largest city economies of India. Chennai is nicknamed "The Detroit of India" with more than one-third of India's automobile industry located in the city. In January 2015, it was ranked third in terms of per capita GDP. Chennai has been selected as one of the 100 Indian cities to be developed as a smart city under Smart Cities Mission.

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

The Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University was established by the Government of Tamil Nadu by an Act of State Legislature [Act No.43 of 1997] for the advancement and dissemination of knowledge in learning, teaching and research in the field of law. It holds the pride of being one of the very few Universities to be accredited to NAAC. It strives hard to develop the students and research scholars, a sense of responsibility to serve the society in the field of law by developing skills in advocacy, legal services, legislation and law reforms through better educational instruction and research facilities.

The University is recognized by the University Grants Commission (UGC) under Section. 2 (f) & 12 (B) of the UGC Act, 1956). The University is a member of the Association of Indian Universities (AIU) and Indian Institute of Public Administration, New Delhi. It is functioning as a nodal agency to improve legal education in the State of Tamil Nadu. Within a short tenure, the School of Excellence in Law (SOEL) has emerged as one of the premier Law Schools in the country. THE PLACEMENT CELL

The Placement Cell of the School of Excellence in Law, The Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University, plays a pivotal role in facilitating career opportunities and professional development for students. During the academic year 2025–2026, the Cell focused on structured placement support, skill development, and strengthening industry connections, operating on principles of transparency, equal opportunity, and merit-based access. It successfully contacted over 47 firms and organization and circulated more than 23 career opportunities, ensuring consistent engagement between students and the legal industry.

A key aspect of the Placement Cell's work was the organization of career development initiatives aimed at exposing students to diverse legal career paths. Notable programmes included sessions on civil services preparation, litigation practice, and corporate law careers, along with an innovative podcast titled "Law Unboxed," which connected students with legal professionals and alumni. These initiatives provided practical insights, mentorship, and clarity on career progression, significantly enhancing student preparedness.

In terms of placement outcomes, the Cell successfully placed several students in reputed organization such as TATA AIG, SBI General Insurance, SAPR Law, and Clean-tech Industry Resources, with the highest number of placements secured at SBI General Insurance. Additionally, the Cell expanded its internship database and facilitated opportunities across multiple domains, including litigation, corporate law, intellectual property, and policy research.

The Placement Cell also undertook extensive outreach efforts, engaging with law firms, advocacy chambers, and corporate legal departments to broaden placement avenues. While corporate outreach did not yield immediate results, it established a foundation for future collaborations. Overall, the activities of the Placement Cell during the year reflect a strong commitment to student career advancement, and future plans include enhancing recruiter engagement, increasing corporate placements, and conducting targeted skill-based training programmes to further improve placement outcomes.

MOOT COURT

The Moot Court Association (MCA) of the School of Excellence in Law continued to demonstrate remarkable academic excellence and advocacy skills during the academic year 2025–2026, with students achieving significant success in numerous national and international moot court competitions. The consistent participation and outstanding performance of students reflect the institution's commitment to fostering legal research, drafting, and oral advocacy. Across various competitions, students not only secured top positions such as winners and runners-up but also earned individual recognitions along with cash prizes, further highlighting their competence in the field of law.

One of the most notable achievements of the year was the victory at the University of Staffordshire & REVA International Moot Court Competition, where the team comprising Fatma Al Zahra, Ashwad Dhinakaran, and Nivethitha Mahadevan emerged as winners. Competing against international teams, they demonstrated exceptional legal acumen and advocacy skills. In recognition of their outstanding performance, the team was awarded a cash prize of USD 1,200 (approximately INR 1,00,000), marking a significant milestone for the institution on the global stage. Similarly, the team consisting of Ashwad Dhinakaran, Maryum Ameen, and Tamil Iniyan E secured the winner's position at the 5th Justice Santhosh Hegde National Moot Court Competition 2026. Their performance in a highly competitive environment, involving premier law institutions, showcased their analytical abilities and courtroom excellence.

Another remarkable achievement was recorded at the NLST Moot Court Competition 2026, where the team comprising Z Mohamed Zayd, N E Tamil Iniyan, and Sai Venkat V emerged victorious after progressing through multiple rigorous rounds. Their victory was complemented by a cash prize, reinforcing their excellence in advocacy and legal reasoning. Additionally, the team of Afiya Parveen A, Sai Shruthi A, and Arun A secured the winner's title at the Kristu Jayanti Moot Court Competition 2026. Their consistent performance from preliminary rounds to finals earned them not only the championship trophy but also a cash prize, emphasizing their dedication and skill.

The institution also witnessed several commendable runner-up finishes across prestigious competitions. At the 2nd All India Moot Court Competition 2025 organized by Government Law College, Puducherry, the team comprising Vaishali G, Raja Kaleeshwari K, and Sameeha Mariam secured the runners-up position after competing against 69 teams nationwide. Similarly, the team of Monica B, Anushree Tamilkumar, and Tharun Pranav AG achieved the runners-up position at the Surana & Surana Judex 3.0 Human Rights Moot Court Competition. Their performance was further distinguished by winning the Best Memorial Award, showcasing their excellence in legal drafting alongside oral advocacy.

In another significant achievement, the team comprising Swaathi R, Pavietran S, and Shiren Sasikumar emerged as runners-up at the 10th Moot Court Competition organized by Bishop Cotton Women's Christian Law College, Bangalore. The competition involved complex issues of international law, and the team's performance stood out among global participants. Likewise, the team of Sheik Muqthar, Naveen S, and Vishnuram secured the runner-up position in the Tamil Family and Cyber Law Moot Court Competition, demonstrating strong advocacy skills in specialized legal domains.

The academic year also saw multiple runner-up achievements in national-level competitions such as the 6th HPNLU-NHRC National Moot Court Competition 2025-26, where Ahamed Akhill R, Harish M S, and Harish T secured the runners-up position after competing against over 75 premier law institutions. Similarly, the team of Varshan Shanmuganathan, Arunesh Krishna P, and Ramya B M achieved runners-up status at the Xavier Moot Court Competition 2026, while another team comprising Ranganayaki Vijayaraghavan, Srinithiya B, and Sainikitha OL secured the runners-up position at the 8th Thiru Isari Velan National Moot Court Competition 2026.

In addition to team achievements, individual excellence played a crucial role in enhancing the institution's reputation. Many participants secured awards such as Best Speaker, Best Advocate, and Best Researcher across competitions, reflecting their specialized strengths. For instance, Bhuvanesh J received the Best Researcher Award at the NHRC-IFIM National Moot Court Competition, while Deetchanya K earned the Best Speaker Award at the KMC National Moot Court Competition. These individual recognitions complement the overall team success and highlight the depth of talent within the institution.

Overall, the Moot Court Association's performance during the academic year 2025-2026 stands as a testament to its dedication to nurturing legal talent. The consistent record of winners and runners-up positions, coupled with prestigious awards and cash prizes, demonstrates the institution's excellence in legal education and advocacy training. These achievements not only bring pride to the university but also prepare students for successful careers in the legal profession by equipping them with practical skills, confidence, and a competitive edge in the field of law.

NATIONAL CADET CORPS

The National Cadet Corps in the university is a youth development movement. It has enormous potential for nation-building. The NCC provides opportunities to the youth of the country for their all-round development with a sense of Duty, Commitment, Dedication, Discipline, and Moral Values so that they become able leaders and useful citizens that aim:

The Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University National Cadet Corps, in association with 1 (TN) ARTY BTY NCC and 1 (TN) R&V SQN NCC, has consistently demonstrated excellence in discipline, leadership, and national service. The unit continues to uphold the proud traditions of the NCC through active participation in national-level camps, training programmes, and prestigious events. Over the years, a total of 60 cadets from the unit have participated in prestigious Thal Sainik Camps (TSC) and Republic Day Camps (RDC), reflecting the unit's sustained excellence and strong representation at the national level.

The cadets have shown unwavering dedication and commitment. The unit has produced distinguished individuals serving the nation in various capacities, including personnel in the Indian Air Force Such as Flying Officer Gokul K, and officers like Capt.Sowparnika serving in the Judge Advocate General branch of the Defence Forces. Our alumni have also excelled in civil services, with several cadets becoming Civil Judges, and have represented India globally, including Ms. Anugraha V, IFS, currently serving as Third Secretary at the Embassy of India in Moscow.

The unit has a proud legacy of international representation through Youth Exchange Programmes, with cadets participating in countries such as Bangladesh, Russia, Nepal, Bhutan, Vietnam, and Kazakhstan over the years, showcasing global exposure and cultural exchange. The year 2025- 2026 stands as a significant milestone. Our cadets brought immense pride to the institution through their outstanding performances: Cadet Nithish V secured a Silver Medal in Tent Pegging at the Republic Day Camp 2026, showcasing exceptional skill and discipline. Cadet Pramothini had the honour of marching on Kartavya Path, Republic Day Parade, a moment of great pride and distinction. Cadet Dhanisika NP served as a Sponsor Cadet, representing India and promoting goodwill and cultural exchange and will also Represent India at the Youth Exchange Programme Camp in Russia.

These milestones reflect the spirit of teamwork, perseverance, leadership, and commitment to service that define the National Cadet Corps. As we move forward, we remain committed to nurturing responsible citizens and future leaders.

NATIONAL SERVICE SCHEME

The National Service Scheme (NSS) wing of the School of Excellence in Law, Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University, functions with the motto “Not Me But You,” reflecting its commitment to selfless community service. The unit comprises four active groups with 100 volunteers each, guided by dedicated Programme Officers. Throughout the academic year 2025–2026, the NSS unit organized a wide range of regular and special activities aimed at promoting social responsibility, awareness, and community engagement among students. One of the notable initiatives was participation in the Marina Beach cleaning campaign organized by the Chennai Corporation on 22nd February 2025, where around 100 volunteers actively contributed towards environmental conservation. The NSS unit also conducted a seven-day Special Camp at Sevalaya, Kasuva Village, focusing on the welfare of children and senior citizens. Volunteers organized awareness sessions on health, legal rights, and emotional well-being for the elderly, while engaging children through educational support, storytelling, and interactive activities.

In addition to community outreach, several awareness programmes were conducted within the campus. International Yoga Day was celebrated to highlight the importance of physical and mental well-being, with expert guidance from a professional yoga trainer. A free dental camp, organized in collaboration with SRM College, benefited nearly 300 students and faculty, promoting awareness on oral hygiene and providing access to treatment. The NSS unit also conducted sessions on the prevention of stray animal issues, emphasizing legal guidelines and humane approaches. Furthermore, National Youth Day was observed with an inspiring motivational speech by a renowned speaker, encouraging students to develop leadership qualities and a positive mindset. A workshop on Information and Cyber Security was organized in collaboration with the Government of Tamil Nadu to educate students about digital safety and responsible online practices. The NSS unit also observed National Voters Day by organizing a pledge-taking ceremony to promote awareness about the importance of voting and civic responsibility among youth.

Overall, the NSS activities during the academic year significantly contributed to fostering social awareness, civic sense, and leadership qualities among students. Through active participation in community service, awareness campaigns, and skill-building programmes, the volunteers demonstrated a strong commitment to societal development. The NSS unit continues to uphold its mission of nurturing responsible citizens and remains dedicated to organizing impactful initiatives in the future.

EXCELLENCE CULTURAL ASSOCIATION - SOEL, TNDALU
Cultural Association in SOEL, TNDALU: Fostering Creativity through TANTRA

The Cultural Association at SOEL holds a unique distinction - it's entirely student-run! This student-driven approach fosters a sense of ownership and allows students to tailor events and activities to their interests. Students from varied backgrounds bring their own cultural influences and creative ideas to the table, resulting in a dynamic and inclusive environment. The student body can adapt to evolving trends and student preferences, ensuring events remain relevant and engaging. Organizing and managing events provides students with valuable leadership experience, teamwork skills, and problem-solving abilities. Working together towards a common goal fosters a strong sense of community spirit and belonging among students within SOEL.

This student-driven model fosters a vibrant cultural hub within SOEL. It empowers students, celebrates creativity, and creates a lasting impact on the college experience.

The School of Excellence in Law (SOEL) at Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University (TNDALU) boasts a vibrant Cultural Association that provides a platform for students to explore their creative talents and celebrate diversity.

The Mission of Association is to:

- * Promote cultural exchange and understanding among students from various backgrounds.
- * Encourage participation in creative activities like music, dance, drama, and literary pursuits.
- * Organize events and workshops that enrich the student experience beyond academics. TANTRA

TANTRA - The Cultural Extravaganza:

The highlight of the association's activities is its annual cultural festival, TANTRA (Tamil Nadu Dr. Ambedkar Law University Association's (K)Night of Talents and Resilience Achievements). TANTRA is a much-awaited event that brings together students from across TNDALU for a night of exciting competitions, performances, and celebrations.

TANTRA is more than just a competition; it's a celebration of creativity, cultural heritage, and the spirit of SOEL. It provides a platform for students to showcase their talents, build lasting friendships, and create memories that will be cherished for years to come.
